Khwarizmi Science Society

(2007-2008)

The events of the Khwarizmi Science Society are generously covered, announced and reported in the local and national press. Occasionally, our events also get coverage in international periodicals and journals. This published material forms an important part of the Society's goal of public dissemination of science. Some of our published material from the years 2007 and 2008 (upto June) is listed below.
